It was both a privilege and a pleasure to meet with you during my recent visit to [redacted]. I very much appreciated your warm hospitality and the opportunity for our long and valuable discussion. It was helpful to me during my other meetings in [redacted] and will be important in our consideration here of issues of vital interest to our countries. I place a high value on the continued good relationship between our two countries and on close cooperation between our representatives.

Respectfully yours,

/s/ William J. Casey
